This matter comes before the Court to review Magistrate Judge Thomas E. Rogers' Report and Recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d), D.S.C., filed on August 28, 2009. The magistrate recommends that this Court grant Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment . For the reasons stated herein, this Court adopts the magistrate's recommendation.

Background

Plaintiff filed this action under 42 U.S.C. §1983 on November 13, 2008, alleging that his constitutional rights were violated due to Defendant incorrectly filling his prescriptions while he was housed at the DCDC. Defendant moved for summary judgment on December 21, 2009, alleging there was no issue of material fact. The magistrate judge recommended granting Defendant's Motion in its July 7, 2009, Report and Recommendation. Although objections were due on July 26, 2010, Plaintiff filed no objections.

Plaintiff brings this claim pro se. This Court is required to construe pro se pleadings liberally. Such pleadings are held to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys. See Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978). This Court is charged with liberally construing a pleading filed by a pro se litigant to allow for the development of a potentially meritorious claim. See Boag v. MacDougall, 454 U.S. 364, 365 (1982).

The magistrate makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and responsibility for making a final determination remains with this Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). This Court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made, and this Court may "accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). This Court may also "receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate with instructions." Id. In the absence of specific objections to the Report and Recommendation, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198 (4th Cir. 1983). As noted above, Plaintiff did not file any objections.

After a review of the magistrate's Report and Recommendation, applicable case law, and the record, this Court finds that the magistrate applied sound legal principles to the facts of this case. Therefore, this Court adopts the Report and Recommendation in its entirety.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
